All-Baltimore Eleven Too Much for the Locals.

PROSPECTS IN THE BASE BALL WORLD

Carlisle Indians Win From California University.

CURRENT SPORTING NOTES

The All-Baltimore team of foot ball play-National Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0. The weather was cold and windy, infusing life and energy into the shivered. The attendance was quite large noticeable throughout. The Baltimoreans excelled in team work and proved too strong for their Washington opponents.

The feature of the game was the playing of Nellson Poe of Baltimore, one of the famous Poe graduates of Princeton. There were no spectacular plays, but Poe was in every scrimmage. He often broke through the Washington line, which, however, was not very formidable, and prevented the full back from punting. He tackled and followed interference finely and made several lowed interference finely and made several quick captures of fumbled balls.

Burlingame, Henkle, Penton and Hibbs all did brilliant work for the Baltimore team. Burlingame exhibited some of his great ground-gaining ability and hurdling proclivities, while Penton, Hibbs and Henkle all made good gains. Baltimore's team work and interference was of a very high order, and in defense the visitors were well nigh impregnable. Washington suffered somewhat from the non-appearance of several of her expected best players. Curtis, Reddington and Snell did very fine work for Washington, Line-up:

INDIANS FINALLY WON.

A Fast Played Foot Ball Game With University of California. The east and the west lined up on the gridiron yesterday at San Francisco, the opposing teams being the Carlisle Indian chool team of Pennsylvania and the University of California. Six thousand persons witnessed the game. The Berkeley rooters were out in force, but the Indians did not lack sympathizers.

Every one expected an easy walkover for the Indians, but in this their anticipations were not realized. Berkeley put up a great game and held the Indians down in fine game and held the Indians down in fine style, the score at the end of the game being 2 to 0 in favor of the Indians. A fumble by Berkeley when the ball was on her I0-yard line lost her the game. Kaarsburg tried a fake kick, but dropped the ball. He picked it up, but the Indians were through the line and pushed him over for a safety. Had he been successful in this trick the score would undoubtedly have been a tie.

At one time it looked as if the Indians trick the score would undoubtedly have been a tie.

At one time it looked as if the Indians might kick a field goal. They were crawling near the goal line, but just before they got within kicking distance Hudson was hurt and had to retire from the game. He had tried several field goals during the game, but was unsuccessful, yet there was a great feeling of relief on the part of the Californians when he retired, for it was certain he could not miss all the time.

Toward the end of the second half there was a battle between the punters of the two teams, with no advantage on either side, and time was called with the ball in Berkeley's territory. The game was the fastest ever seen on the coast, and, although Berkeley lost, she has risen hugely in the estimation of foot ball enthusiasts.

THE BASE BALL OUTLOOK.

Washington May Be in a Ten-Club League After All. Developments in the base ball situation have just been divulged by Col. John I. Rogers, one of the four members of the National League circuit reducing commit-

"The committee will not bid on all the property of the four clubs that are to be retired, and the players will not be placed in a pool to be sold to the highest bidder," said Colonel Rogers. "The league intends to purchase the franchises of the clubs, and the present owners will be allowed to carry the present owners will be allowed to carry on the business of selling their players. They can do it to better advantage than the league. As yet the committee has not made a direct offer for any franchise.

"After we dispose of Louisville and Cleveland the Baltimore and Washington people will be approached, and unless they can be bought out cheaply the league will go on next season with ten clubs."

President H. D. Quinn of the American Base Ball Association arrived at his Milwaukee home last night from his conference with Anson, in Chicago. Mr. Quinn reports that the result of negotiations so far points to the placing of teams of his association in Philadelphia, New York, Boston and probably Baltimore, in the east, and Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Milwaukee in the west. A meeting will be held in Chicago about January 15, at which time something definite as to the season's plans will be given out.

The New Western League.

The New Western League.

The newly organized Western Base Ball League appears to be going to pieces. When it was organized at Omaha the outlook was bright and six cities were after franchises. This number has now dwin-dled to five by the failure of Lincoln to pay its first assessment. Des Moines is also said to be losing its enthusiasm. Whether the new association is to live will be set-tled at a meeting to be held at Omaha January 12.

President Thomas J. Hickey of the Western League of Base Ball Clubs in a statement last night said all the clubs so far in the league have ample backing. He also says there is no doubt that the league will be a success.

REALISTICALLY REPRODUCED.

The Sharkey-Jeffries Fight Given in Moving Pictures at Convention Hall. The reproduction of the recent Jeffries-Sharkey prize fight by moving pictures at Convention Hall this week is an exceedingly creditable exhibition. The photographers were enabled to obtain excellent pictures of the contest, and these are transferred to the big screen with startling fidelity. The differences between the views and the fake ones recently presented in this city as the Jeffries-Sharkey fight pictures were easy to detect. An enthusiastic gathering saw the pictures yesterday afternoon, and the report that circulated regarding the exhibition was so favorable that another exhibition was so favorable that another large assemblage was present in the evening. The scenes of the great contest are pictured so vividly that it requires but little imagination to transport oneself to the ringside on Coney Island. Many of the spectators can be readily recognized. Not the least interesting of the scenes are those taking place between the rounds. Good judgment was exercised in not confining the pictures to portraying only the actual exchange of blows. The agitation of the original assembly, the characteristics of well-known sporting men, the excitement of the spectators, the strained interest with which they followed the varying fortunes of the fighters—all were faithfully reproduced, and with a distinctness and freedom from fluttering that was strikingly unusual. unusual.

Among the spectators partisan lines were early drawn, and, although popular sympathy seemed to be with Sharkey, there were plenty who believed that the referee was right in awarding—the contest to Jeffries, although he did not knock out the sailor in the twenty-five rounds. The uppermost question in sporting circles ever since the light has been. Was the referee right? A view of the fight as presented by the moving pictures will give renewed energy to the discussion in local sporting circles. Exhibitions are given every afternoon and evening.

Intercolleginte Chess. The eighth annual intercollegiate chess cournament opened at the Columbia Gram mar School in New York yesterday. The first round resulted: Everett R. Perry, Harvard, beat Kaufman G. Falk, Columbia; center counter man G. Faik, Columbia; center counter gambit.

Louis A. Cook, Yale, and John C. Henley, Princeton, Ruy Lopez, drew after thirty-three moves.
Frank H. Sewall, Columbia, beat James B. Hunt, Princeton; French defense, Claude T. Rice, Harvard, beat Joseph T. Mugan, Yale; pawn to queen's fourth.

Washington Golf Club Matches. The Christmas tournament of the Washington Golf Club, which was opened on the links at Rosslyn yesterday, brought out over forty entries. Three different cups have been offered, and the entrants are divided into three different classes of play-vided into three different classes of players.

Mr. Lafferty of the Chevy Chase club defeated all seven competitors in class A, and he will play Mr. Lockhead, the present champion, to settle honors for the year.

Mr. Henry May of the Washington club won from Rev. Dr. Prescott in class B, and he will play Mr. Perkins in the semi-finals.

Mr. Boardman and Coionel Denny were also winners and they will play each other, the winner to play with the victor in the May-Perkins match for the cup.

In class C Riggs. Britton and Hearst were the winners.

Pillsbury-Showalter Game Off. Pillsbury and Showalter, who were to play the last of the series of chess games begun by them in Louisville, arrived at Cincinnati yesterday too late to play, and postponed the game without fixing date or Schmidt paid no attention to him until 2 o'clock yesterday morn tion to him until 2 o clock yesterday morning, when he tried to wake him up. But Burnet was heavy in sleep and would not move. An hour later the saloonkeeper decided to close up the place. He shook the motorman violently, then dragged him into the street. Burnet drew a revolver and shot Schmidt through the heart. The murderer was arrested.

Queen Victoria's Christmas.

For the first time in thirteen years Queen Victoria and the royal family passed Christmas day at Windsor. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the children of Princess Henry of Battenberg were of the party. Not only was there a baron of beef arranged, but there was also a magnificent Christmas tree, with many col-ored candles for the children, in which the queen showed the greatest interest.

The keynote of the festivities at Windsor was the queen's unaltgrable devotion to and faith in that empfre which she believes will ultimately achieve the highest aims and ambition of her reign.

President Cole to Stay at Los Angeles. The attorney for Charles H. Cole, formerly president of the Globe National Bank of Boston, and now being detained at Los Angeles, Cal., on a charge of embezzlement, geles, Cal., on a charge of embezziement, says that his client will remain there, and that no move is contemplated until the complaint now on its way from Boston is received and the warrant issued and served. The character of the complaint, he says, will determine the action he will take, though it is probable habeas corpus proceedings will be tried. Mr. Cole is living quietly with his wife and son at the Van Nuys. He refuses to be interviewed, and refers all who call to his attorney.

Killed His Father on Christmas. While his family was gathered around the Christmas dinner in Brooklyn last evening Charles Haffner, forty years of age, entered his home drunk and caused a family quarrel, which ended in the mur der of the father by his son Harry. Haffder of the father by his son Harry. Haffner came home from a neighboring saloon, and on his attention being called by Mrs.
Haffner to a book and writing desk she had given to Harry, Haffner tore the book, smashed the writing desk, threatened to kill his son and wife and struck the former. Harry grasped a large knife and severed his father's jugular vein, and the eider Haffner died before the arrival of the ambulance. Young Haffner was arrested.

ELECTRIC PLANTS.

They Will Be Required in Sweden Consul Bergh of Gothenburg, Sweden, import of motor carriages into Sweden, if once properly started, will be considerable, provided they can be made durable, neat in appearance, safe and easy to handle, and not too expensive. Cab owners, especially in Stockholm, are considering the advisabillty of purchasing motor carriages, and a short time ago they sent experts to Berbillity of purchasing motor carriages, anda short time ago they sent experts to Berlin, to study and examine motor cabs manufactured in Germany. The report they made on their return was not altogether favorable. They said that automobiles which in catalogues seemed to be ideals of perfection in reality did not come up to expectations.

The chief objection to the motor cabs,
with accumulators or storage batteries,
was that they could not make sharp-enough turns. The cabs were built with the batteries placed close to the back wheels.
The steering power of the front wheels was so small that the carriages could turn only in very large curves, making them unfit for use on narrow streets. Another inconvenience was that as soon as the cabs got on a road covered with a layer of sand an inch thick, they stopped helplessiy.
Besides these inconveniences, common to French and German motor cabs allke, it was said that few of the carriages exhibited
were of the type desired—that is, with room for from two to four passengers. Hunting wagons, motor cycles, delivery wagons, etc., for sportsmen and business houses were plentiful; but cabs were fewer and, as a rule, clumsy in appearance. A German manufacturer promised, however, to remedy the faults mentioned; but it is not yet generally known whether the prospective purchasers and the manufacturer can agree on terms. Manufacturers of motor carriages usually demand one-fourth of the price for thirty days' trial, while the cab owners in question desire free trial before purchase, because they are unwilling to buy such expensive machines without being sure that they are practically useful.

At present there is only a petroleum motor carriage and a light motor cycle in Gothenburg, both of French manufacture.
I believe there is an American monor facturers ought to pay attention, also, to the markets in the other cities of this kingdom, especially Gotherburg and Maime. It would be of great advantage for American firms to be represented here at once.

Another thing of importance is electrical machinery in general, which will be in great demand as soon as the people have fully learned the value of their numerous waterfalls. A large electric power plant will soon be built at Trollhattan; electric railways and tramways are being planned for Gothenburg, Lund, Bjerrod and Jonkoping. In this line, as in everything else, the Germans are always waterful; they pay close attention to details, and, if necessary, send experts here to study plans, etc., whereby they greatly increase their chances to introduce machinery. If it is not practical for Americans to do likewise, they could possibly employ active agents to represent them here by they greatly increase their chances. dom, especially Gotherburg and Malme. It could possibly employ active agents to rep-resent them here. Electric motor carriages are preferred for city traffic. Those with benzine motors are said to be noisy and to emit offensive gases.

He was sent by some of the officer's admirers in Bemidji, Minn., and arriver in Washington late Sunday night. The admiral had been notified of his coming and had made arrangements with the officials of the Zoo to receive and care for the animal for which he has no accommodations at present.

Admiral Dewey has not seen his present as yet, for when the beast arrived Christmas eve it was in a very bad humor, pangs of brutish hunger having transformed his erstwhile even and unruffled disposition into a very sanguinary one. Coupled with his hunger 'Billy' had a truly western thirst, and a western thirst, if not soon quenched is liable to make trouble in almost any community. "Billy's demonstrations were not at all to the likings of the express messengers, notwithstanding the fact that the animal was securely incarcerated in an iron cage. The Zoo was notified and two keepers soon arrived at the depot. Food and water were given the bear and he was soon pactified.

Admiral Dewey has not notified the Zoo soon pacified.

Admiral Dewey has not notified the Zoo officials as to what disposition will be made of the animal.
